For the New Era. "I Saw Her."

BY B " CARNICK."

I saw her 'mid the happy throng. Her rosy cheek with health did bloom ; Her blithesome voice did cheer the heart,-And winsome smile dispell'd all gloom

And heaviness was in her eyes: Her feeble limbs could scarce support Her frame: alas I how soon life flies. I saw her on her dying bed.

I saw her again,-the rose had fled,

Her ; ale transparent blow was calm ; Her still sweet voice did peace diffuse Around her, - sweet as Eastern ba'm I saw her in the last tomb laid. She'd bid the gay bright world farewell,

And took the path to realms abore, ith angels pure, in bliss to dwell.

General Summary.

The London and Port Stanly Railroad nearly completed, and will be open for passenger traffe in a few days.

The Colonist of Tuesday announces that he has reason to believe that at a Cabinet Council hold on Saturday last, it was agreed not to dissolve the present Parliament. The Atly. Gen. West was in favor of dissolution; but the Hon. Post Master General Spence was egdinst it. The organs are mum.

We direct the special attention of Farmerato the extensive Sale of farm Stock advertised in our columns to-day, belonging to Mr. SAMUEL TRENT. Most of his Herd are well-bred animals, and a portion of the Stock thorough-bred; and the sale now advertised will give farmers in this community a rare opportunity to change their Stock. We hope to ses a large attendance.

Wm Kingsford, Erquire, Superintendent the Grand Trunk Line from Toronto to Oshawa, like a noble Squire of old, has sought display his valor, by esending a challenge to withstand the braggadocia of a certain class of men, who although large in their own estimation, are neither a credit to themselves, useful to society, or a benefit to the community at large, We suggest that the Grand Trunk Company furnish their bullying servant with a leather medal ! for the chivalry displayed.

A correspondent informs us that Mr. Joseph Wells, 3rd Concession of King, met with a serious loss, in the destruction of a new brick house by fire, on the afternoon of the 11th inst. How the fire originated it is difficult to tell; but it is supposed that by some manner of means matches must have been lying upon the floor and ignited by walking upon them, -and thus setting fire to the shavings and rubbish which had accumulated while doing the carpenter work. Mr. Wells' loss is estimated ful perusual, gentle reader, and you will then at £300. Four Carpenters were recently work in the place, who lost all their tools, valved at £100. One of the workmen is said have been seriously injured while attempting to save some of his effects.

day in South Simcoe, when between four and five hundred good men, and true, feasted Geo. Brown, Esq. M. P. P. for Lambton. It certainly was one of the most successful demonstration we ever witnessed -and the greates unanimity and satisfaction was everywhere manifested. The Dinner was given in a spacious wooden structure, crected for the occasion, which, together with every arrangemen of the committee, showed how earnestly and imbury, occupied the Chair. Besides the guest of the day, in whose honor the demonstration was made, were Messrs. Ferguson, Hartman. Aikins, Gould, and Wright,-all members of the Parliamentary Opposition. Mr. Brown occupied the platform for upwards of two hours, treating upon the various prominent political question of the day, and was at times so rociferously cheered as to preclude the possibility of speaking for some minutes. He evidently had the sympathy of the meeting with him. Mr. Brown was followed by the other Judge members of Parliament present, -and the manner they were received gave unmistakable signs that the Opposition in Assembly have the good wishes of the intelligent people of South Siracoe. We cannot conclude without putting in a word or two for Mr. Thos. May, of Holland Landing, the purveyor on the oc- constantly from the Government five or six casion.
